Welcome to our spicy book club resource page, where we turn the page to a whole new chapter of fun! Get ready to dive into a world of plot twists and character arcs as we leaf through our current book selection. For novellas and short stories, we've provided the The Enticing Eight; eight spicy and intriguing questions to spark discussion and help you uncover the spine-tingling depths of the story.

The Enticing Eight

Foreplay - Warm Up Questions

1. What's the overall spice level? 1 (Not Spicy) - 10 (Spiciest Thing I've Ever Read)?
2. How does the spice level compare to the other books we've read together?
3. Jeanne St. James doesn't shy away from over-the-top metaphors (Chinese fans, filet mignon, dinghy-sized shrimp). Did these descriptions pull you deeper into the drama, or did they yank you right out of the moment?

The Spicy Bits - Gettin' Down and Dirty with the Plot

4. From the first scene in the coffee shop, she's drawn to Kane with an obsession that borders on reckless. Do you think lust at first sight can ever truly evolve into love, or does it always stay rooted in fantasy?
5. The danger play during the nipple-bite scene is described as thrilling but also edged with fear. How did you read this—sexy intensity, or a red flag moment?
6. Kane is written as dark, controlling, and magnetic, with the heroine willingly swept up. Did you find their power dynamic exciting, problematic, or a mix of both?
7. The sex is constant, graphic, and tied to obsession. Do you think the story delivered genuine intimacy, or was it more about feeding a fantasy of being consumed?

Aftercare - Final Thoughts

8. Discuss that plot twist ending. Was it a satisfying dark-romance fantasy, or is that trope overdone?

Bonus: What questions do you have for the author? If you could dog-ear a page with a question for the author, what would it be?
